

North region revenue increased steadily.

East region revenue accelerated in Q3.

Operating margin held above target.

Customer churn declined year over year.

Diagram summary remains aligned with the layout flow and should appear after both text columns.

The final synthesis block should remain below the two-column content instead of being pulled into the left column.